

With the sponsorship from the CCCU Quality Campus Life Fund and the Division of Applied Science Technology, 35 students from the programme Associate of Science in Airport Operations and Logistics (AScAOAL) participated in the study tour to Seoul during May 22-26, 2017. In this tour, the students visited the Korea Aerospace University, DHL Logistics Terminal, Korean Air Cargo Terminal, Incheon International Airport, Gimpo International Airport, and Free Trade Zone. This study tour aims to enable student with the latest development in aviation and logistics of Seoul, as well as to understand the Korean culture.

Visit to the Korean Aerospace University

Visit to the DHL Logistics Terminal

Visit to the Korean Air Cargo Terminal

Visit to the Incheon International Airport

Visit to the Gimpo International Airport

Visit to the Free Trade Zone

